Audio Project: Listen and then Record
AA Grapevine is now collecting recorded stories in member’s own voices.

Please visit: www.aagrapevine.org/audio-portal for additional information about the project. There are a few easy ways to record your story. You will find sample stories here to help inspire you!

You can re-record your share until you are satisfied.

Members’ recorded stories will undergo the same manuscript process as print/digital stories and if accepted, could be published. Speaker recordings from meetings are not accepted.
