The Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can,
and wisdom to know the difference.

Growing up in sobriety means different things to each recovering alcoholic, but one idea seems true: The rewards for reaching for emotional sobriety are serenity, emotional balance and an increased joy for living. These selected stories from the AA Grapevine show that when people in recovery have the willingness to work the program to find solutions rather than stay stuck in problems, they can let go of fear, put aside selfish demands, practice outgoing love and become more connected to their Higher Power, family and fellows.

Between 1944 and 1971, Bill wrote 150 articles for AA Grapevine, helping to unite the Fellowship's new groups and hammering out the principles of AA. These articles give us a living history of Alcoholics Anonymous and the story of Bill W.'s emotional and spiritual growth.

Sober & Out is a collection of stories by AA members who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgendered (and a few friends) from the pages of AA Grapevine. They share their experience, strength and hope with alcoholism as well as their personal struggles and hard-fought triumphs. The stories in this book show that—like most alcoholics—LGBT AAs struggle to fit in, stay sober and find peace in their lives. By working the Steps, following the Traditions, doing service, and finding a Higher Power, they are now living sober in the Fellowship of AA.
